BREED PICTURE.
Cord of Life, Feature Picture.

One of the strongest pictures shown at the Broad theater, so far, is the big picture, The Cord of Life, and is a wonderful representation of human nature as we find it in the common districts of large cities. It deals with a phase of humanity somewhat new to the moving picture world, and while very thrilling, it is very natural, and is interesting the large audiences that are visiting this popular theater nightly. The picture is another powerful picture, and is a story of the Canadian woods, introducing bear traps, in the familiar haunts. The comedy pictures are the Human Wheel, and the entertaining colored picture, Swindled Professor, headlined Jack of All Trades, and last, but not least by any means, Mrs. Jones Entertains; this in particular is one of the funniest pictures yet shown, and is a story of the theater being kept in a ripple of laughter until the last scene, when conservatism seems thrown to the winds, and all burst into one wild applause.
Madam Morelle sings the sweet and pathetic Little So Soon We Are Forgotten, to the delighted audience, and renders the light and frothy Roby's Answer, in her usual artistic manner. Mr. Cooper's pleasing solo, To the End of the World With You, is pleasing to all.

BROADWAY THEATER.
"The Traveling Salesman."

The laughing comedy success of the season, "The Traveling Salesman," James Forbes' latest play, will be offering at the Broadway theater on Sunday, March 2, when Henry B. Harris will present for the first time in this city the reigning New York hit.
The story of the play concerns Bob Blake, a jovial old drummer, who is compelled to spend his Christmas day at a lonely town in the middle west, and on arriving finds in the presence of Beth Elliott, the plant agent at the depot, a most congenial person. They strike up an acquaintanceship, which soon ripens into affection, and for the first time in his life the young, well-meaning drummer discovers that he is enthralled with the diversions and beauty of the little lady who presides over the railroad depot. Through her he learns that she is about to lose her land, and he at once takes steps to protect her rights, and thereby runs counter to his employer, who has laid his plans to obtain the girl, and who is a piece of worthless lard, but which has suddenly assumed considerable value, as it is needed by the railroad. His complete and unimpaired they have in view. Blake's position is a most peculiar one, in expounding the rights of the girl, and this leads to many interesting situations. The comedy of this play is of a most humorous character, and never before in the history of the stage has there been a dramatic contribution which includes so many laughs as does "The Traveling Salesman." So well does it depict the life of a drummer on the road, that it won the endorsement and commendation of the United Commercial Travelers of America, and the Travelers' Protective association.
The cast which Mr. Harris has selected for this company is composed of none but actors of established reputation, and the performance will leave nothing to be desired.

Madam Morelle Sings at the Spiritual Academy.
At the regular monthly musical service at the Spiritual Academy, to be held Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, the regular choir will have the valuable assistance of Madam Morelle, the talented lady who is appearing so many audiences at the Broad theater. Her rich and powerful voice will be heard to excellent advantage in Harrison Millard's new song, "The Traveling Salesman." In addition to which the following programme will be given:

Eronously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.
Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that. Herber's Herpicide. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herber's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send the herpicide sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

"Dignity is What We Use To Conceal Our Ignorance" is Elbert Hubbard's definition of the word dignity.
Unquestionably Elbert is correct, and every thinking person will agree with him.
We've no dignity, natural or assumed, and if its use was attempted by us the public would discount it. Let the public estimate us correctly; give us credit for a thorough knowledge of the photographic business; let us do our work at reasonable prices. Years of experience in this business exclusively entitles us to it.

Understood Better Each Day
The most successful business man is the one who knows every detail of his business and does not depend upon a pull for his success. Each day this is being understood in no better way than a detailed knowledge more essential than in the Building Trade. If you want an estimate on any work in my line, I'll be pleased to give you the benefit of my many years experience.
